

Onion Powder

Dried onion powder contains Onionine A element in its substance components. Thanks to this elemental composition, it has been demonstrated by recent scientific research that it reduces tumor development in humans and slows the spread of ovarian and lung cancer. It is a supportive product for your bone health.

It can be used as a meat, chicken and meatball mortar, sprinkled on cooked meat and vegetables, and added to your pasta, pizza and salad dressings. No sweeteners or additives are used in our product.
